PRESS RELEASE October 26, 2012

According to Sgt. Pat Paterson, on October 26, 2012 at 4:15 am, Deputy Dale Pohto of the Lake County Sheriff Office encountered suspicious activity in a Concord Township neighborhood which led to the arrest of one adult male and one juvenile male.

While patrolling the residential neighborhood of Lancaster Ct. Deputy Pohto's suspicions were drawn to a pair of teens clad in dark clothing walking in the street. A field interview found both to be in possession of items in their back pockets that turned out to have been confirmed as stolen from two vehicles parked in the driveway nearby at 10422 Barchester Drive in Concord Township.

One of these suspects, later found to be 17 years old and the subject of a juvenile runaway warrant, initially provided false information as to his identity and ran from Deputies who were trying to ascertain his correct identity. With assistance from Deputy Randy Woodruff of the Sheriff's Office and the Painesville Police Department K9 unit, the juvenile was apprehended shortly thereafter in the same area of theft.

The adult male was identified as Jacob Kalista (18) of Leroy Township and he was booked into the Lake County Jail on misdemeanor counts of theft and Obstructing Official Business. The juvenile, a Concord Township resident, was booked into Lake County Juvenile Court on charges Theft, Escape, Obstructing Official Business and Criminal Damaging.
